Re: Gustavia Homes -v- Yvette Hoyer et al

Dear Hon. Judge Chen,

Please accept my sincerest apologies to the court and counsels regarding the failure to respond to the court and/or any other communications that may have been sent to me. The lack of response was not due to an intentional disregard to the communications. The issue of the lack of responsiveness came to my attention only this week when the Defendant called me and notified me of the issue.

Last year I became ill forcing me to seek medical attention, therapy and counselling. As a result of my illness, I was forced to reduce my caseload with the intention of bringing my practice to a halt this year. In furtherance of this plan, I asked the Defendant to hire a new attorney so that I could focus on my health, while minimizing my practice. My last communication with her before this week was last year, when she had indicated that she would hire another attorney, and asked me to send over all files for her case(s), which I did, and as such, I assumed that the Defendant had hired a new attorney to assist her in all the case(s). It has only come to my attention this week that no new attorney was, in fact, hired in the instant case. As a result of my prior supposition, I took this case off of my active case roster; therefore, any further electronic communications from pacer, with regards to the EDNY District Court were not addressed by me or given any attention. Clearly this has been my error in judgment; and was not designed to intentionally disrespect the court's directives.

In addressing the Notice to my client(s), the court has notice that the Defendants have been thoroughly notified of the court's Order. I shall additionally be providing any and all responsive papers on behalf of the defendants.

Respectfully

Nigel E. Blackman, Esq.
